The Mayor's Moment...

Halloween will be here in another week. So be careful driving with all the gremlins, spooks, and dinosaurs roaming around.

Also don't forget daylight savings begins November 5th!

Randy Gawith,
Mayor

Baked Food Sale

Pilot Rock Senior Center is having a Thanksgiving baked food Sale. It will be held at the Senior Center on Monday November 20 from 8am-2pm. If you would like to donate some baked goods, please get a hold of someone from the Senior Center.

Would anyone be interested in starting a "Game Night" at the Senior Center? Games could be anything that would sound interesting to all. We can also get a hold of some dominoes and have a fun night with those. Just let someone at the Senior Center know.

Senior Center Board Members:

Ray Bacus
Linda Hill
Kim Gawith
Teresa LaChapelle
Teresa Goad

LARILYN GOSE

In need of medical assistance. Larilyn has been diagnosed with an autoimmune disease that has damaged her liver and requires a new liver. She will be going back and forth to OHSU for multiple testing. This is a big financial burden. Can we come together to help relieve some of this financial burden for our family?

She needs our help

- There is an account set up under Andrew Gose at Community Bank in Pendleton Oregon where you are able to donate money.
- Bake Sale November 5th @ Life Church Pilot Rock after service.
- Community Dinner November 12th - Pilot Rock High School at 2pm. (w/ silent auction)

For info please contact Laquita Markle @ 541-215-5388

A big thanks to all that helped my estate sale be successful. Many hours were spent setting up and boxing up. Special thanks to Daniel Christensen, Pat Moss, Richard Christensen, and Sandy Lyons.

Thank you,
Jeanette Hall

thank you
