The Mayors Minute or two..

And here we are again! with not much going on. I haven't quite decided if boring is good or it's just boring :O)

Mayanna Kopp tells me that as of yesterday she has received 611, 90th birthday cards, she is so enjoying this and those sharing their best wishes is creating so much happiness.

I would like to challenge each of you to do something anonymous for someone in your circle and keep it a secret! You'll feel good and even more importantly you will have brought happiness to someone's life. It doesn't have to cost a dime just something nice.

I visited with Teresa LaChapelle yesterday to check in on the food pantry, she said they are in pretty good shape right now, but could use non-food items like shampoo, toothpaste and similar items, also food from gardens and from fruit trees would be enjoyed. They are also receiving a large refrigerated unit which will make storage much easier. They applied for a grant and only have to supply a 10% match. Good job, Teresa and crew. Masks would also be appreciated.

My compliments go out to Mr. Rocket Nation Troy Jerome (our new school superintendent) and the school board for their efforts toward making the best decisions possible given Covid-19. They are between a rock and a hard place and no matter what decision they make someone will be unhappy! For the first time in 20 years of retirement, I don't regret retiring. Every August the "Back to School" gene kicks in, but not this year. The staff has a huge job ahead of them, so be patient, those staff care about your kids and grandkids too. They need your support more than ever. If they need some volunteers, help and step up to the plate. I've already let Corey Thacker put me down for what ever is needed. We also have some other retired teachers out there, so step up. We have some pretty good skills that can be helpful. And you don't have to be a retired teacher to be helpful, I'm, sure there are plenty of ways to lend a hand.

Do take care and check in on your friends, neighbors and family.

Happy Trails!

Mayor
