The Mayors Minute or two..

I know this is a busy season, but please take the time to count your blessings for where you live and the people in your life. It is so disheartening to watch the complete destruction of over 200 miles of houses and families in western Kentucky. Perhaps we can all share even a small donation on the state's website? My mind just reels with what these poor people are going through. We know we truly live in God's country! Or we've been extremely lucky. It could be us?

Thanks to Riley Miller for her efforts with the light parade. Perhaps by next year we can get back to the chili feed.

As winter is upon us, please check on your older friends and neighbors. Check on them even if they tell you they are OK. Over seniors have a lot of pride and its hard to ask for help. You never know when offering to do some small chore can change things for the better.

Have a lovely Holiday season and continue to be safe.

Merry Christmas

Happy Holidays.
