The Mayors Minute or two..

OK scratch off June and let us move into July, yes already!! A couple of things come to mind as we go forward, Councilor Cody Johnson has taken on a new adventure by stepping up to volunteer to paint the water tower. He is looking for volunteers, designer, etc. If interested, please contact me or Cody directly. Could turn out to be a challenge but we know it will look 5000% better than the graffiti currently there! Shame on them. I guess the old saying "Stupid is as stupid does" applies here.

Plans are under way for a "new" Harvest festival in September. What are your thoughts?

Please remember the Economic Development meeting on Wednesday, June 30th @ 6:00 pm in Council Chambers, appetizers will be served, and the air conditioner running, come and join us for an evening of optimism. And for those of you saying "bull" I might ask how many of you anticipated two new businesses in town? That in itself is a bit unbelievable to me as yet. Lots of good things are happening, just look at the bike pit! Congrats to them for hosting large groups of riders both Saturday and Sunday. If there is any one thing that could put Pilot Rock on the map, it may well be the Bike Pit. The publicity was enormous. There were so many positives.

Have a safe and sane 4th of July!!

Mayor
