My wife Jody and I returned to Carson City yesterday from a road trip to Leavenworth, WA, a Bavarian style town in the mountains, east of Seattle. It was a great town to visit, but the highlight of our trip is when we stopped in Pilot Rock, Oregon to visit Darryl's gravesite. As we approached the grave I could see a bottle, which looked like wine, setting on the head plate. I soon discovered it was an empty bottle of Boone's Farm! For those who recall their teenage years, Boone's Farm is sort of like a placebo for wine. It's always found on the bottom shelf of any liquor store. Teenagers especially liked Boone's Farm because it was cheap, little did they know it had very little alcohol content (it's sort of like sniffing glue). It was apparent that one of Darryl's childhood (teen) friends had stopped by to share a drink with him. Darryl Lee Crews still has many friends who live in the small town of Pilot Rock, Oregon. I would have liked to shake the hand of the person who had a memorable drink with my son.

THE MAYOR'S MINUTE OR TWO

Is everyone ready for the 4th of July? It seemed for the many years I spent in the classroom, that once the 4th was over, it was almost time to go back to school! It won't be long! The stores are beginning to fill with back packs and school supplies.

If you are in town for this weekend, please join several of your local groups at Pendleton's big 4th of July Parade. It's awesome and almost as big as the Dress-up Parade for Round Up!

This year the City of Pilot Rock is being represented by two fire department rigs (unless we have a fire!), the Bike Pit and I'll have the City flag. Come on in and join the fun. Tess Hamby has graciously agreed to drive for me this year, so a special thanks to her.

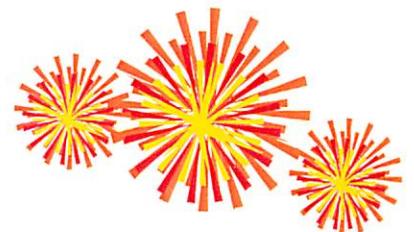

I'm also hoping you will enjoy our new flag display with 10 flags on both the east and west sides of 395, thanks to Glen Snivel's fund raising efforts and the Downtown Association hefty donation to this project... It should be a beautiful site for this special day.

And speaking of the Downtown Association, if you missed the Brew Fest, you missed a fun night. The Downtown Association only sponsors two fund raisers a year---the Wine and Beer Fest and the Community Yard Sale. Many donations are made to projects within our community through those efforts. This year, the Downtown Association made $1754.08, and a great time was had by all. Irish Country (the clan Doherty) and Rowdy Fix (Liz Bronson's group of family and friends) were both huge hits, and we hope we can repeat next year! Great food, wine, beer, music and friends, plus an inside/outside venue all worked together for this successful night! We need to thank Archie's, PRPD, Judy Campbell, Jackie Carey, Emily Campbell (from Austin, Texas) Lela Thieme, Jean Hemphill, the three ladies from Banner Bank (Southgate Branch) plus the staff at Archie's. A huge effort well done! And Jim Doherty missed his calling. He should have been an auctioneer. Thanks also to all who donated the tremendous auction and raffle items.

If you are headed out of town for the 4th, be safe! If you are staying home, be safe also, and join us in Pendleton for the big VFW Parade, and at the very least, go look at our flag display! The parade begins at 10 am, except for those participating, who need to be in place by 9:15 am.

We are so blessed as a community. We often don't appreciate that enough.

Pilot Rock Fire would like to urge the use of extreme caution this fire season. We have already seen a large increase in fires for the first month of the season. In 2013 PR Fire responded to 6 fires for the season. June 1 through October 1. in 2014 we have already responded to 8. All fires have been burning in extreme intensities so please be safe. Thank you-
