WE'RE GETTING THE BAND BACK TOGETHER!!!

How many of our old band members and cheerleaders would like to play and perform at this year's Rocket alumni game, Friday evening Aug. 19th? I am really trying to rekindle that old PR spirit that ROCKED the gym on Friday and Saturday nights. Growing up in Pilot Rock we couldn't wait for our Freshman year to try and make the Varsity team, to be one of the lucky players that got to run out on to the hardwood in front of the whole town. Sitting in that locker room and listening to Koepkes band playing "Green Door" and warming up for that moment... "Attention Ladies, Attention Gents, Coach Kramer now presents... Varsity", is like a dream now. Running out there to "Sweet Georgia Brown" made us feel like Globe Trotters. Nobody was gonna beat us in our house. What I am trying to say band members and cheerleaders is that your spirit and real enthusiasm was one of the reasons our teams were so successful. Please come help ROCK the HOUSE WITH US on Aug. 19th. Billy Quaempts class of 1971.

It's SWIM BUS Time!!

The Pilot Rock Swim Bus will be heading to the pool again this summer! Make sure to get your pass at City Hall. The bus will run Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday June 20 August 4. We will be selling a new RIDER ONLY Pass, call City Hall for more info.

The Pilot Rock Community is cordially invited to hear Oregon author, GEORGE STASTNY, speak at the Pilot Rock High School Tuesday, April 26th at 8:40 am. He will be sharing events from his 2010 book Risk For Freedom.

Mr. Stastny was born in communist Czechoslovakia, played music, built his own house, escaped with his entire family in 1980, immigrated to McMinnville, Oregon, and started his own art business. It sounds simple enough... Let this talented speaker share with you what it took to get where he is today. He will entertain and inspire you. Come join us.

Mr. Stastny will also be speaking at Helix High School at 12:45, with the Pendleton Home School Association at the Pendleton Library Community Room at 3:30, and at the Pendleton Friends of the Library gathering at the Peace Lutheran Church in Pendleton at 7:00pm. All presentations are free and open to the public. There will be a book signing after each presentation. Books cost $19.95. There is one copy at the Pilot Rock Library. Many thanks to Troy Jerome and Liz King for helping bring this educational event to Pilot Rock. Contact Janet Haddock for more information. 541-443-2920 or 541-443-2922.

FCCLA will be hosting guest speaker Marissa Hascall from Domestic Violence Services in Pendleton on April 28th at 10:43 a.m. in the FACS room. FCCLA has been doing projects for domestic violence and Ms. Hascall will share needs, services and statistics about the organization. The public is welcome to attend. If you have questions, please call Mrs. Hadden at the high school.

Senior Citizens are reminded to call your reservations in to the high school if you'd like to be FCCLA's guest at the Senior Citizen Brunch. The date is reserved for May 4 at 4:00 p.m. in the FACS room. Call Brenda, 443-2671, or Mrs. Hadden. We can accommodate about 30. The entertainment promises to be fun and the program will be informative.

Pilot Rock High School Theater Department stage is transforming into Dogpatch, U.S.A. as the upcoming production of Li'l Abner approaches. Production dates for Li'l Abner are Friday, Saturday and Sunday April 29, 30 and May 1, 2011. The curtain will rise at 8:00 PM Friday and Saturday and at 2:00 PM for the Sunday Matinee. Doors open a half hour before each production.

Tickets are available from all theater students and by calling the Pilot Rock High School at 541-443-2671 or by calling 541-377-3075 and leaving a message. Reserved seating prices are: Adults $8.00, Students and Senior Citizens $6.00, Elementary $4.00 and Preschool $2.00. All performances will be held in the Pilot Rock Jr. High Café-gym-a-torium.

The 1956 Broadway musical Li'l Abner was inspired by the satirical comic strip by Al Capp. Derek Hoisington plays the lead as Li'l Abner Yokum, the handsome, muscle-bound, muscle-brained leading hillbilly of Dogpatch, USA. The citizens of Dogpatch are in an uproar because their ramshackle community has been designated the "most unnecessary" town in America, and therefore a prime candidate for an atomic bomb testing site. At first, the Dogpatchers consider their least-desirable status a great honor, but then they despair upon realizing that they'll have to vacate the premise before the annual girl-chases-boy Sadie Hawkins Day race. Together with his Mammy (Josie Cherry) and Pappy (Dakota Fitzpatrick), Li'l Abner is dispatched to Washington DC, to argue that Dogpatch has some vital significance: after all, only in Dogpatch can one partake of the Yokumberry Tonic, the source of Abner's super strength. Shifty billionaire General Bullmoose (Jake Moyer) wants that Yokumberry tonic for his own devices, and to that end dispatches his lady friend Appasionatta von Climax (Kiauna Fritz) to Dogpatch to catch Li'l Abner during the Sadie Hawkins race and thus secure the mountain boy's cooperation via marriage. Li'l Abner's erstwhile girl friend Daisy Mae Scragg (Naomi Manley) would likewise like to snare Abner in the race, but Appasionata wins, thanks to the squirrely Evil Eye Fleagle (Scott Callahan), whose "triple whammy" paralyzes Abner just inches before the finish line. If you think all this is unbelievable, wait till you see how the story resolves itself. Featured in the cast is Joey GrosJacques as Marryin' Sam, who leads the hillbilly chorus in the musical's best number, "Jubilation T. Corpone". Other tunes included in the play are "A Typical Day," "If I Had My Druthers," "Namely You," "The Country's in the Very Best of Hands," "Past My Prime," "Put 'Em Back (The Way They Wuz)" and "The Matrimonial Stomp."
