Computer Classes for Grownups

The Pilot Rock Public Library is presenting a series of beginning computer classes entitled Surfing Umatilla County.

This is an introduction to computer skills and will include the following lessons.

Lesson 1: The Most Basic of Basics

Lesson 2: Internet Searches and Email

Lesson 3: Using Your Library Account

Classes will be held June 15, June 22, & June 29.

9:30 to 11:00 AM

Space is limited so you must sign up. There is space for only 4 people.

Call the library at 541-443-3285 to sign up.

If you missed a spot—the classes can be offered again later in the year.

The Program was produced by the Umatilla County Special Library District, in cooperation with the Pendleton Public Library.
