Just want to say Thank You!

It has been a pleasure serving the City of Pilot Rock here @ City Hall for the past 8.5 years.

Pilot Rock is a caring community with a big heart, from welcoming new neighbors to being there when catastrophe comes upon us, through flood, fire or death of loved ones, we are there for each other. Jenn Mespelt will be my replacement, so if you need anything, she will be here to assist you. This is not good-bye, but see Ya

Mayors Minute or Two..

During the last 10 days or so the inside of the City Council Chambers has received a face lift. With minimal cost to the City. Ray Baccus and I volunteered our time to patch and paint the inside of the building and replace a few pictures. What a difference a coat of paint makes!

Plans are in the works to paint the entire outside of the building from the library to the police station sometime in April or May.

We also have plans to update the electrical and redo the bathroom at the Senior Center and invite all the interested to attend activities there.

Randy Gawith,
Mayor
